GOOD MORNING PROGRAM

Information Sheet:

The Cordova Police Department is proud to sponsor the "Good Morning" program. This program is designed to assist senior citizens or adults with disabilities living alone in the community. The goal is to assist these people that they may continue living an independent lifestyle. Project "Good Morning" will aid in eliminating many concerns families may have about their loved ones that live alone. The program is able to provide families with security of knowing that their loved one will have a source of daily contact and be able to continue independent living.

This program is free of charge. Residents may be eligible for this program if they are senior citizens or adults with disabilities living alone. A brief application must be completed and a wavier signed. This will provides us with some basic information about the participant. Upon completion of the application the participant can call the Cordova Police Department, or choose to be called daily between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. to say "Good Morning." If a program representative does not receive a call by 10:00 a.m., then the program representative will attempt to call the participant. If contact cannot be made by telephone, a police officer will be dispatched to the residence to check on the welfare of the participant.

The Cordova Police Department is pleased to be able to provide this service to residents of the City. The program has proven to be effective in other communities. It has aided and assisted participants during an unexpected incapacity or predicament when they have been unable to call for assistance. Interested parties are encouraged to contact the Cordova Police Department for an application
